The NHS BME Network was launched on 4 June 2010 at the Hilton Park Lane to be an independent and effective voice for BME staff, patients, service users and carers to ensure the NHS delivers on its statutory duties regarding race equality.

Membership of the Network is open to all BME people.

Join the Network and demonstrate your personal and professional support for:

- The Elimination of Racial Discrimination in the NHS
- The Elimination of Ethnic Health Inequalities
- Effective BME Patient and Public Engagement
- Personal and Professional Development of BME Staff
- Local BME Networks

Benefits include:

- An opportunity to bring about change in the NHS
- An opportunity for your “voice” to be heard
- Access to better and more appropriate healthcare
- Information and interpretation of NHS Policy
- Access to a network of people of shared vision
- Discount to the prestigious Annual National Conference
